The Oakville AVA is a breathtakingly beautiful place in the heart of Napa Valley set among centuries-old oak trees and a patchwork of meticulously planted vineyards. It is a two-mile-wide swath of coveted land stretching between the majestic mountain bookends of the Mayacamas to the West and the Vaca range to the East. Dennis and Judy Groth purchased their 121-acre Oakville Estate in 1981.

Today, the Oakville AVA is home to the largest concentration of Napa Valley's preeminent producers of Cabernet Sauvignon.
